

St George Hall

Information for hirers

St George Hall is located in the small township of South Kolan situated 23 kilometres west of Bundaberg and approximately 26 kilometres east of Gin Gin.

This quaint community Hall is surrounded by bushland with a cane railway nearby.

The hall is ideal for small group activities and is a popular venue for local community award ceremonies and events.

The main Hall has polished timber flooring, exposed beams, a small stage with adjacent dressing area, kitchen, bar and toilets.

There is an off street car park with ramp access into the hall available.
